Dear PhD Office,

I am pleased to formally invite Sara Salviati, a PhD student at the University of Siena, Italy to join my research group as a visiting researcher during her PhD program, from April 23rd to October 23rd, 2025. During her time in our lab, Ms. Salviati will actively participate in ongoing research related to the role of 5-alpha reductase 2 in neurobehavioral regulation, contributing to various experimental and analytical aspects of the project.

Her responsibilities will include, but are not limited to:

- Assisting in animal experiments, following approved protocols and ethical guidelines.
- Performing various wet lab techniques necessary for data collection and analysis.
- Contributing to the interpretation and organization of research data to support our ongoing investigations.

Ms. Salviati's visit will provide her with valuable hands-on experience in experimental neuroscience research while fostering collaboration between our institutions. We are excited to host her and support her professional development during this period.

Please let us know if you require any additional documentation to facilitate her visit.

Best regards,

Marco Bortolato, M.D., Ph.D.
